ANTI-FATIGUE

Anti-fatigue mats are a great solution for a variety of applications.

These mats are perfect for individuals standing or working in the same place for a continuous period of time. They provide relief while standing and provide great impressions for your customer's brand. We have a few of our best-selling anti-fatigue products that are great for a multitude of applications.

“While providing traditional anti-fatigue properties, the HogHeaven Impressions is also capable of increasing your customers branding and logo awareness.”

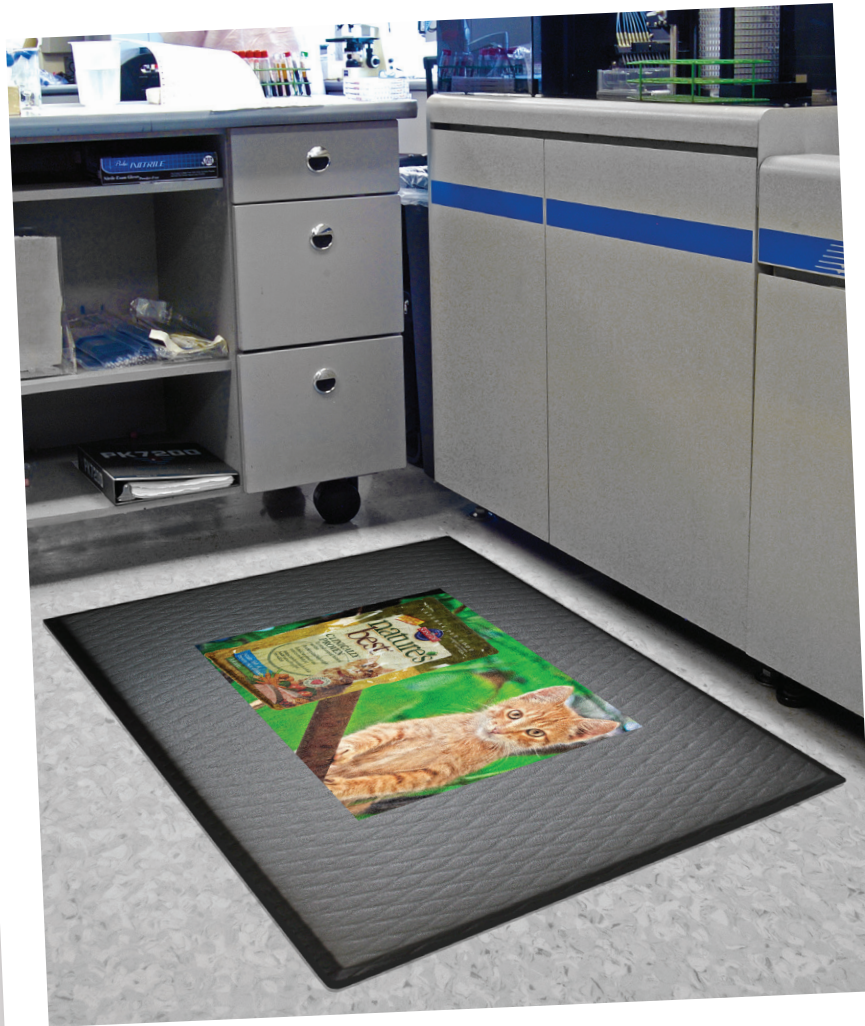

—Miles Wadsworth

HOGHEAVEN™ IMPRESSIONS

The HogHeaven™ Impressions is our most popular anti-fatigue logo mat. This mat has a cushioned surface that alleviates stress to the back and legs. The HogHeaven™ is equipped with a diamond-patterned surface for superior traction. Plus, you'll increase your customers' brand awareness. Lasting about 3 to 5 years, it's the highest quality anti-fatigue mat in the industry.

CUSHION MAX™ IMPRESSIONS

The Cushion Max™ Impressions is fairly similar to the HogHeaven™ Impressions, because it's also a logoed anti-fatigue mat, but this mat has a beveled edge for safety, which is paired with its diamond pattern for traction. Also equipped with photographic-like image quality, it's a great branding piece where people are standing continuously. The Cushion Max™ Impressions is featured more for medium traffic applications.
